

Social and Personal

THE wedding of Miss Sadie Kriete Scott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Ryland Scott, to Vernon Hope Kellam, a member of the Norfolk bar and a grand-nephew of the late James Barron Hope, will be celebrated at noon to-day in St. John's Episcopal Church, Tappanhook, Rev. William Meade officiating.

The church will be decorated in pink and green, the chancel covered with white and lighted with altar candles, against a background of green. In the body of the church the pink roses will prevail. The same color scheme will be carried out in house decorations for a breakfast to be given after the ceremony. Miss Alice Buckner Exall will be at the organ and will render the wedding march from "Lohengrin" as a procession, that from Tappanhook, as a recessional, and "Hearts and Flowers" during the ceremony. Mrs. Timothy Witten Patton will sing "O Perfect Love" before the entrance of the bride party.

Miss Alice Kriete Ware, cousin of the bride, will be her maid of honor and will have on a pink frock of pink messaline trimmed with pearl embroidery. Her flowers will be a nosegay of pink asters, tied with pink tulle. The bridesmaids, Misses Anne Janet Dowsell, Anne Laura White, Janet Latane Scott, Della Wright, Louise Eubank and Irene Temple Newell, will wear white lingerie dresses, two will wear green ribbon sashes and carry white asters held with green tulle; two have pink ribbons and pink asters, and two lavender ribbons and asters.

Judge Benjamin Day White will be best man, and the groomsmen, James Gordon Bratten, E. J. Woodhouse, Charles Gresham, Macon Ware, Edward Kriete and Eugene Phillips, H. H. Elliott, O. B. McLean and O. L. Lynch will officiate as ushers.

The bride will walk to the altar with her father, who will give her in marriage. She will be handsomely gowned in white satin, with hand-wrought draperies. Her veil will fall from a wreath of orange blossoms and be held with a diamond spray, the groom's gift, and her only other ornament will be a cameo brooch, a family heirloom. She will carry an old-fashioned bouquet of bride roses. A reception was tendered the bride party in the home of the bride yesterday evening, and a wedding breakfast to-day will precede the ceremony of Mr. and Mrs. Kellam, by boat to Fredericksburg. From there they will go for a ten days' trip to the mountains of Virginia.

Out-of-town guests at the wedding will be Mrs. Cyrus Conroy Cronin, Abington, Md.; Mrs. Timothy Witten Patton, Crumpler Springs, N. C.; Miss Dorothy Kriete, Aberdeen, Md.; Misses Lucie Kriete, Janet Latane Scott, Louise Eubank, Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Garnett, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Kriete, Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Kriete, Dunneville, Va.; Miss Irene Temple Newell, Central Cross, Va.; Mrs. L. O. Eaton, Norfolk, Va.; Mrs. J. Hugh Coffey, Newport News, Va.; Miss Bessie Kellam, Eastern Shore, Va.; James Gordon Bratten, Leesess Anne, Va.; O. L. Lynch, Wallacetown, Va.

Just a Personal Word

Everything you eat made with

Dunlop Flour

Bread, Rolls, Biscuits, Cakes and Pastry, adds not only to your satisfaction, but encourages a home industry—one of the largest employers of labor in Greater Richmond.

INSIST ON DUNLOP.

The Dunlop Mills, Richmond, Va.

"GREEN CASTLE"

Kitchen Cabinets will lessen kitchen labor. Try one. Sold by

Rothert & Co.,

Fourth and Broad.

This Week is General Clean-up Sale Week.

Baylor-Yarborough Co.

207 E. Broad Street.

Direct Action Gas Ranges

Have No Equal Sold Only by

Ryan, Smith & Co.

Hofheimer's

HOFHEIMER'S SUMMER SALE NOW ON

FLOWERS FOR ALL OCCASIONS.

109 E. Broad Madison 630 Hammond's

GOING AWAY? Why not take leave your plimsoles? Relieves Nettle Rash, Eczema, Heat and removes acids and poisons from the blood.

Kaufmann & Co.

Pure Silk Ladies' Hose, Special, 50c

Judge Benjamin Day White, Norfolk, Va., E. J. Woodhouse, Virginia Beach, O. B. McLean, Norfolk, Va.; H. H. Elliott, Norfolk, Va.; Dr. R. M. Grimm, Evansville, Ind.; N. Powell Wescott, Mappabury, Va.

Lawn Party to Veterans.

Richmond Chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy, will give a lawn party to the Confederate veterans at the Soldiers' Home on Friday afternoon, from 7 o'clock. The entertainment will take the form of the annual treat given in summer by the chapter to the veterans, and all members are urged to attend without further invitation. Mrs. Mollie Macgill Rosenberg, of Galveston, Texas, an honorary member of Richmond Chapter, will be present, and other Daughters prominent in U. D. C. work are expected. The officers of the chapter will form a reception committee. Taylor-Perkins.

The marriage of Miss Mary Claudia Perkins, daughter of H. W. Perkins, to Charles Ashland, Taylor took place yesterday afternoon in the home of the bride's grandfather, Dr. Carl Perkins, of 111 Thirty-second Street, Newport News. Mr. and Mrs. Taylor will return from their wedding trip to live in Richmond, where Mr. Taylor has a position in the city schools.

Ashland House Party.

Misses Mary and Hazel Thompson, of Ashland, have just returned from a delightful visit in Newport News and Petersburg and are now entertaining in the form of a house party the following girls and boys: Misses Ruth Thompson, of Richmond; Mary Fannie Kevan, Maria Jones, Annie Perkinson, of Petersburg; Anne Bro-nough Jones, of Norfolk, and Louise Clark, of Newport News; Burnleigh Crump, Wesley Tarborough, of Richmond; Asaugh Priddy, Hunter Thompson, of Norfolk; and Forrest Crawford, of Elmont. They are having a most enjoyable time, with hayride, music, evening gatherings and all kinds of amusements.

Dance at Gale Hill.

Misses Margaret Minor, of Gale Hill, near Ashland, Va., was the hostess of a delightful dance, on Thursday evening of last week. The house was decorated with ferns and evergreens, and the lawn was hung with Japanese lanterns.

Septuaginta party of young people from Charlottesville and the University of Virginia included Misses Anne Keith Royall and Miss Emily Royall, of Richmond, and Miss Anne Keith's Charlottesville hostess for Horae Wood-Geatlight.

Mrs. Mary H. Gathright announces the approaching marriage of her daughter, Jennie Edloe, to Dr. Ezra Parker Wood, of Raleigh, N. C., the wedding to take place the first of September.

Mrs. Blunt Returned.

Mrs. W. B. Blunt, who has been spending some time abroad with a party under the direction of Miss Claudia Stewart, of Washington, D. C., has returned. Other Richmond members of the party, Mrs. George B. McAdams and Mrs. James Pleasants, are still in Europe.

At Brahehead, near Fredericksburg, the home of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Graham Howison, the marriage of their daughter, Margaret Morton, to James Brooks Smith, son of the late B. W. Smith, of Lexington, Ky., was celebrated at 5 P. M. yesterday, the Rev. James H. Hendrille and the Rev. J. W. Rosebro, of Clarksville, Tenn., officiating.

The bride was gowned in white crepe de chine, with embroidered yoke and sleeves. Her veil was caught with orange blossoms and her bouquet was of bride roses, with a spray of maidenhair ferns. Miss Mary Graham Howison, the maid of honor, wore a pink silk and old lace. The bridesmaids, Miss Jean Dunnington, of the University of Virginia; Miss Lucy Sanford, of Orange; Miss Frances Davis, of Farmville, and Miss Nanny Howison, wore white lingerie frocks and pink sashes. Like the maid of honor, they carried Killarney roses.

T. McG. Simpson, of Spartanburg, S. C., was best man. Mrs. G. V. Morton, the bride's aunt, played the wedding marches on the violin with a piano accompaniment by Miss Mary D. Boale. A reception was held after the ceremony, and later Mr. and Mrs. Smith left for Hampden-Sidney, their future home.

In and Out of Town.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Saunders, Jr., and Miss Mary Saunders, who are spending August at Jamestown, N. Y., will go to Atlantic City for September.

Mr. and Mrs. George D. Mayo are guests of Mr. and Mrs. James T. Ruthertford at Rock Castle, Va.

Mrs. Isaac Carrington and Miss Margaret Cabell Carrington are spending August and part of September with Mrs. Morgan Pondleton in Lexington, Va.

Miss Miriam J. Smith is visiting her aunt, Mrs. J. Dorsey Tyler, of Henderson, N. C.

Mrs. Edward R. Fuller, Isabel and Henry Fuller, of 715 East Marshall Street, after attending the Knights Templar Conclave in Chicago, are now at the Palmer House, Lake Michigan, Culver, Ind. From there they will go to St. Louis about August 20.

Miss Lena Miller Moeller is registered at the Hotel Latham, New York City.

Harvey C. Brown sails by the Lusitania from New York to-day for England.

Richard O. Ferguson and wife have left for the Adirondack Mountains, where they will spend the rest of the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Lassiter, of 1847 West Grace Street, returned this week from a tour through Northern Maine and the Eastern States.

Mrs. Betty Osborn, of Lawrenceville, Va., is taking an extended Northern trip in company with her son, the Rev. F. W. Osborn, whom she joined in Richmond.

Miss Parker Conrad has returned from a visit to Mrs. William J. Perry, of Staunton, Va.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Beverley are spending August at Riverside, near Massaponax, Va.

Mr. and Mrs. Ambler Johnson, who have been at Virginia Beach, will visit Willoughby Bay, in Hanover county before returning to the city.

Bernard Robb and Robin Robb, of Daymont, Caroline county, are the guests of friends in Fredericksburg, Va.

Mrs. Powhatan Breen, Mrs. M. M. Patterson and Miss Daisy Patterson are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. May, of Lawrenceville.

Dr. and Mrs. R. G. Loving, of Richmond College, are visiting Mrs. Loving's father, Mr. D. M. Fraser, of Lahore, Va.

Miss Dudley Powers, who has been the guest of Miss Nan Logan, of Salem, for the past month, is now visiting friends in Berryville, Va.

Mrs. Augusta Bode and Mrs. Fred Heilmann, of Fredericksburg, are guests of Mrs. S. T. Meek at the Shenandoah.

Mrs. Mary Hicks and daughter have returned from a pleasant stay in Staunton. Miss Lilly Jewel, who has been visiting Miss Katherine Gorman in Staunton, is also at home again.

Mrs. Withers Miller and children are spending August with Mrs. Miller's mother, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Palmer, of Lawrenceville.

Mrs. Franklin Stearnes, of Richmond, attended the reception given at the Roanoke Country Club on Saturday afternoon of last week.

Mrs. Gertie Witt is the guest of Mrs. N. C. Williamson, of Roanoke.

Miss Nannie Patton is the guest of friends in Gloucester county.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas D. Neal are spending August in Culpeper, Va.

Miss Frances Wheat is at Montvale, Va., for the late summer season.

Atkinson-Tate.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Washington, D. C., August 16.—The home of Mrs. C. A. Cutler, on Massachusetts Avenue, was the scene of a beautiful, though quiet wedding to-day, when Miss Louise Tate, daughter of the late William Clark Tate, of Bedford City, Va., became the bride of Emmett J. Atkinson, of Newark, N. J. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Samuel R. Swift, in the presence of only a few relatives and intimate friends. Immediately after the marriage Mr. and Mrs. Atkinson left for New York, the Thousand Islands, Canada, and Niagara, after which they will be at home in Lynchburg. Both the bride and groom were natives of Washington, where they have a number of friends. The gifts were numerous.

Green-Rodgers.

Federicksburg, Va., August 16.—Edward Green and Miss Elizabeth Rodgers, both of this city, were married here last night at the Methodist parsonage, Rev. John R. Jacobs performing the ceremony.

MARRIED IN BALTIMORE.

Mayor Easley, of Clarksville, Claims Miss Brannock as His Bride.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Baltimore, Md., August 15.—Robert Henry Easley and Miss Bessie Brooks Brannock were quietly married in Baltimore last night at the Methodist church, the Rev. J. B. Phillips, a minister of the city, officiating. The bride is the daughter of the late Dr. Andrew Easley, of Clarksville, Va., and is one of the most influential citizens of her town. The bride, a young woman of charming personality, is the youngest of three daughters of Mrs. M. E. Brannock, of Cambridge, Md. Her older sister, Mrs. J. B. Phillips, is a woman of much prominence in business circles in Cambridge, Md. The other married W. B. Vane, who is largely interested in the ship supply industry in Baltimore.

After an extended trip to Atlantic City, New York and a tour of the Hudson River, the bride and groom will be at home to their friends September 5, 1910.

PATRICIAN

Price Alone

Does not explain the popularity of PATRICIAN.

There are other shoes at the same price, but it is a well known fact that in the qualities most admired by women wearers—STYLE, FIT and EASE—is head and shoulders above all other $3.50 footwear made. They are built upon honor by skilled labor, and embody every up-to-date feature known to modern shoe making. The least of their virtues is the price. Sold the world over.

Patrician

SEYMOUR SYCLE

11 West Broad.

Save 20% to 50% ON FURNITURE THIS MONTH AT

Jones Brothers & Co.'s,

1418 East Main Street.

Don't Forget the Big Furniture Sale

The Pitts Furniture Co.,

1429 East Main Street

Special sale this week of Porter's Specialty Shoe Store, back of Thalhimer's.

$3 Low Shoes $1.49

THE HATHIDER STORE

Men's 12½c White Sole Sox, SALE PRICE 9c

Ashland News Notes

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Ashland, Va., August 16.—Rev. Geo. H. Roper, D. D., who has been spending the summer at his farm in Nottoway county, and with relatives in Maryland, is now at the home of his son, Dr. A. C. Roper, of Petersburg.

Stanley Blanton, of Richmond, is visiting his family in Ashland.

Mrs. H. D. McLachlan and the Misses Wiley, of Baltimore, are visiting Mrs. A. C. Roper.

Mrs. Nat Lancaster is visiting her sister, Mrs. Segar, in Spotsylvania county.

Miss Carolyn Marsh, who has been visiting Mrs. W. B. Gates, of Martinsville, returned home last night.

Miss Blincoe is visiting her sisters in Ashland.

Miss Anne Turner, of Radford, is visiting Miss Virginia Fotts.

THE HATHIDER STORE

Men's 12½c White Sole Sox, SALE PRICE 9c

Ashland News Notes

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Ashland, Va., August 16.—Rev. Geo. H. Roper, D. D., who has been spending the summer at his farm in Nottoway county, and with relatives in Maryland, is now at the home of his son, Dr. A. C. Roper, of Petersburg.

Stanley Blanton, of Richmond, is visiting his family in Ashland.

Mrs. H. D. McLachlan and the Misses Wiley, of Baltimore, are visiting Mrs. A. C. Roper.

Mrs. Nat Lancaster is visiting her sister, Mrs. Segar, in Spotsylvania county.

Miss Carolyn Marsh, who has been visiting Mrs. W. B. Gates, of Martinsville, returned home last night.

Miss Blincoe is visiting her sisters in Ashland.

Miss Anne Turner, of Radford, is visiting Miss Virginia Fotts.

HAPPY FAMILY REUNION.

"Hechenbrook" Scene of Enjoyable Occasion During Past Week.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Keyville, Va., August 16.—"Hechenbrook," the beautiful country home of Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Priddy, is the scene of a happy annual family reunion. There are gathered there four generations: the great-grandmother, Mrs. Susan E. Watkins, who is now eighty-six years of age; it is interesting to see the grandchildren and great grandchildren gathered at her side to listen to the tales of "by-gone" days. The husband's act is attributed to jealousy.

MARRIED IN NORFOLK.

Miss Nonie Taylor, daughter of H. A. Taylor, and George W. Bryant, both of this city, were married in Norfolk at noon yesterday. The ceremony was quietly performed at the residence of S. J. Taylor, by the Rev. G. W. Perryman, of the First Baptist Church. The

ITCHING RASH ON FACE AND NECK

Cured—Scatched Until Face was Mass of Raw Flesh—Used Cuticura and had First Good Night's Sleep in 3 Months.

"An itching rash broke out on my face and neck, so bad that I scratched it until my face was a mass of raw flesh which kept me awake all night. After going to my family doctor, he not helping me, I tried another doctor but without success. After doctors failing, a friend recommended the Cuticura Remedies. That night, after washing my face and neck with Cuticura Soap, I applied some Cuticura Ointment and had the first good night's sleep in three months. I used about two lots of Cuticura Soap and Ointment when you could not see a mark on my face or neck. I will gladly recommend the Cuticura Remedies to anybody. Wm. Silver, 346 West 38th St., New York, N. Y., 1910."

In another letter Mr. Silver says, "My case was of about two years' standing. After using Cuticura Soap and Ointment for about three days I saw a decided improvement and was entirely cured in two months."

For the prevention and treatment of itching, burning, scaling eruptions and the promotion of permanent skin and hair beauty, Cuticura Soap and Ointment are absolutely unrivaled in purity, efficacy and economy. A single cake of Cuticura Soap and box of Cuticura Ointment are often sufficient.

Sold throughout the civilized world. Potter Drug and Chemical Corp., Boston, Mass. 22-Mailed free, latest Cuticura book, a Guide to the Treatment of the Skin.

NEW HOGO NOSEPIECE

To be Fitted With

The H-O-C-O Nosepiece

(Hall Optical Co.)

MEANS

Eye Glass Comfort.

Exclusively Our Own

Avoid Imitations.

G. L. Hall Optical Co.

Opticians of the Best Sort,

211 E. Broad Street.

Ladies, Attention!

I wish to announce to the ladies that I am ready to take orders for fall and winter suits. My imported cloths and styles have arrived, and are the kind that are shown only by high-class and up-to-date ladies' tailors in the leading cities. In order to accommodate those that wish an up-to-date suit from a high-class ladies' tailor, I have decided to offer a special reduction in prices. You may order your suit now and have it made later. All work will be done under my personal attention and guarantee.

M. BANNETT

240 W. Grace St. Ladies' Tailor.

COUNCIL WILL SOON ELECT NEW MAJOR

Only Candidates Mentioned Are George Cameron, Jr., and E. H. Patterson.

NEGRO SHOOTS HIS WIFE

Rev. Charles R. Stribling, to Enter on His Duties September 1.

Times-Dispatch Bureau, 109 North Sycamore Street, Petersburg, Va., August 16.

It is understood that the two branches of the Council will meet in joint session next week to elect a Mayor to serve during the unexpired term of the late Mayor Jones, and that the Mayor-elect will enter on his office about September 1. The only two candidates mentioned for the office are George Cameron, Jr., and E. H. Patterson.

Death in Chesterfield.

Mrs. Irvinia Magill Wells, wife of W. W. Wells, died yesterday afternoon at her home in Chesterfield county, near Point of Rocks, after a protracted illness. She was sixty-four years old, was twice married, and was esteemed for her Christian virtues. Besides her husband she is survived by one son, C. F. Bessley, of Houston, Tex., and one daughter, Miss Margaret Wells, of Chesterfield. She also leaves many near relatives. The funeral will take place at 11 o'clock to-morrow from Enon Baptist Church, and the burial will be in Blandford Cemetery.

Negro Shoots His Wife.

It was reported from Waverly this afternoon that Thomas Spencer, a negro section hand, employed by the Norfolk and Western Railway Company, shot and dangerously wounded his wife, Spencer, in under arrest, and claiming that the shooting was an accident. The woman, however, declares otherwise. It is said the woman was arranging her bed this morning when her husband entered the room and shot her, the load of shot tearing away her right breast and injuring the left. The husband's act is attributed to jealousy.

Married in Norfolk.

Miss Nonie Taylor, daughter of H. A. Taylor, and George W. Bryant, both of this city, were married in Norfolk at noon yesterday. The ceremony was quietly performed at the residence of S. J. Taylor, by the Rev. G. W. Perryman, of the First Baptist Church. The

INDICTMENTS DISMISSED.

Charges Against Salisbury Citizens for Selling Liquor Not Sustained.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Salisbury, Va., August 16.—What promised to be the sensation of the season fell flat in Salisbury yesterday when indictments issued against several Salisburyans for retailing liquor were dismissed by Judge B. B. Miller of Rowan County Court. Two detectives—H. K. Taylor and G. W. Schultz—two Salisburyans who have been in the city since they were indicted on July 14 for having bought a quantity of whiskey in Salisbury. The additional evidence was not, however, considered sufficient to convict. The two defendants were, it is claimed, spirited away from Salisbury after having worked up the cases for retailing. They claim that two Salisburyans followed them to Columbia, spent some time with them getting them drunk, after which they signed a statement guaranteeing the retailers to deliver the whiskey. The statement was not, however, considered sufficient to convict. The two defendants were, it is claimed, spirited away from Salisbury after having worked up the cases for retailing. They claim that two Salisburyans followed them to Columbia, spent some time with them getting them drunk, after which they signed a statement guaranteeing the retailers to deliver the whiskey. The statement was not, however, considered sufficient to convict. The two defendants were, it is claimed, spirited away from Salisbury after having worked up the cases for retailing. They claim that two Salisburyans followed them to Columbia, spent some time with them getting them drunk, after which they signed a statement guaranteeing the retailers to deliver the whiskey. The statement was not, however, considered sufficient to convict. The two defendants were, it is claimed, spirited away from Salisbury after having worked up the cases for retailing. They claim that two Salisburyans followed them to Columbia, spent some time with them getting them drunk, after which they signed a statement guaranteeing the retailers to deliver the whiskey. The statement was not, however, considered sufficient to convict. The two defendants were, it is claimed, spirited away from Salisbury after having worked up the cases for retailing. They claim that two Salisburyans followed them to Columbia, spent some time with them getting them drunk, after which they signed a statement guaranteeing the retailers to deliver the whiskey. The statement was not, however, considered sufficient to convict. The two defendants were, it is claimed, spirited away from Salisbury after having worked up the cases for retailing. They claim that two Salisburyans followed them to Columbia, spent some time with them getting them drunk, after which they signed a statement guaranteeing the retailers to deliver the whiskey. The statement was not, however, considered sufficient to convict. The two defendants were, it is claimed, spirited away from Salisbury after having worked up the cases for retailing. They claim that two Salisburyans followed them to Columbia, spent some time with them getting them drunk, after which they signed a statement guaranteeing the retailers to deliver the whiskey. The statement was not, however, considered sufficient to convict. The two defendants were, it is claimed, spirited away from Salisbury after having worked up the cases for retailing. They claim that two Salisburyans followed them to Columbia, spent some time with them getting them drunk, after which they signed a statement guaranteeing the retailers to deliver the whiskey. The statement was not, however, considered sufficient to convict. The two defendants were, it is claimed, spirited away from Salisbury after having worked up the cases for retailing. They claim that two Salisburyans followed them to Columbia, spent some time with them getting them drunk, after which they signed a statement guaranteeing the retailers to deliver the whiskey. The statement was not, however, considered sufficient to convict. The two defendants were, it is claimed, spirited away from Salisbury after having worked up the cases for retailing. They claim that two Salisburyans followed them to Columbia, spent some time with them getting them drunk, after which they signed a statement guaranteeing the retailers to deliver the whiskey. The statement was not, however, considered sufficient to convict. The two defendants were, it is claimed, spirited away from Salisbury after having worked up the cases for retailing. They claim that two Salisburyans followed them to Columbia, spent some time with them getting them drunk, after which they signed a statement guaranteeing the retailers to deliver the whiskey. The statement was not, however, considered sufficient to convict. The two defendants were, it is claimed, spirited away from Salisbury after having worked up the cases for retailing. They claim that two Salisburyans followed them to Columbia, spent some time with them getting them drunk, after which they signed a statement guaranteeing the retailers to deliver the whiskey. The statement was not, however, considered sufficient to convict. The two defendants were, it is claimed, spirited away from Salisbury after having worked up the cases for retailing. They claim that two Salisburyans followed them to Columbia, spent some time with them getting them drunk, after which they signed a statement guaranteeing the retailers to deliver the whiskey. The statement was not, however, considered sufficient to convict. The two defendants were, it is claimed, spirited away from Salisbury after having worked up the cases for retailing. They claim that two Salisburyans followed them to Columbia, spent some time with them getting them drunk, after which they signed a statement guaranteeing the retailers to deliver the whiskey. The statement was not, however, considered sufficient to convict. The two defendants were, it is claimed, spirited away from Salisbury after having worked up the cases for retailing. They claim that two Salisburyans followed them to Columbia, spent some time with them getting them drunk, after which they signed a statement guaranteeing the retailers to deliver the whiskey. The statement was not, however, considered sufficient to convict. The two defendants were, it is claimed, spirited away from Salisbury after having worked up the cases for retailing. They claim that two Salisburyans followed them to Columbia, spent some time with them getting them drunk, after which they signed a statement guaranteeing the retailers to deliver the whiskey. The statement was not, however, considered sufficient to convict. The two defendants were, it is claimed, spirited away from Salisbury after having worked up the cases for retailing. They claim that two Salisburyans followed them to Columbia, spent some time with them getting them drunk, after which they signed a statement guaranteeing the retailers to deliver the whiskey. The statement was not, however, considered sufficient to convict. The two defendants were, it is claimed, spirited away from Salisbury after having worked up the cases for retailing. They claim that two Salisburyans followed them to Columbia, spent some time with them getting them drunk, after which they signed a statement guaranteeing the retailers to deliver the whiskey. The statement was not, however, considered sufficient to convict. The two defendants were, it is claimed, spirited away from Salisbury after having worked up the cases for retailing. They claim that two Salisburyans followed them to Columbia, spent some time with them getting them drunk, after which they signed a statement guaranteeing the retailers to deliver the whiskey. The statement was not, however, considered sufficient to convict. The two defendants were, it is claimed, spirited away from Salisbury after having worked up the cases for retailing. They claim that two Salisburyans followed them to Columbia, spent some time with them getting them drunk, after which they signed a statement guaranteeing the retailers to deliver the whiskey. The statement was not, however, considered sufficient to convict. The two defendants were, it is claimed, spirited away from Salisbury after having worked up the cases for retailing. They claim that two Salisburyans followed them to Columbia, spent some time with them getting them drunk, after which they signed a statement guaranteeing the retailers to deliver the whiskey. The statement was not, however, considered sufficient to convict. The two defendants were, it is claimed, spirited away from Salisbury after having worked up the cases for retailing. They claim that two Salisburyans followed them to Columbia, spent some time with them getting them drunk, after which they signed a statement guaranteeing the retailers to deliver the whiskey. The statement was not, however, considered sufficient to convict. The two defendants were, it is claimed, spirited away from Salisbury after having worked up the cases for retailing. They claim that two Salisburyans followed them to Columbia, spent some time with them getting them drunk, after which they signed a statement guaranteeing the retailers to deliver the whiskey. The statement was not, however, considered sufficient to convict. The two defendants were, it is claimed, spirited away from Salisbury after having worked up the cases for retailing. They claim that two Salisburyans followed them to Columbia, spent some time with them getting them drunk, after which they signed a statement guaranteeing the retailers to deliver the whiskey. The statement was not, however, considered sufficient to convict. The two defendants were, it is claimed, spirited away from Salisbury after having worked up the cases for retailing. They claim that two Salisburyans followed them to Columbia, spent some time with them getting them drunk, after which they signed a statement guaranteeing the retailers to deliver the whiskey. The statement was not, however, considered sufficient to convict. The two defendants were, it is claimed, spirited away from Salisbury after having worked up the cases for retailing. They claim that two Salisburyans followed them to Columbia, spent some time with them getting them drunk, after which they signed a statement guaranteeing the retailers to deliver the whiskey. The statement was not, however, considered sufficient to convict. The two defendants were, it is claimed, spirited away from Salisbury after having worked up the cases for retailing. They claim that two Salisburyans followed them to Columbia, spent some time with them getting them drunk, after which they signed a statement guaranteeing the retailers to deliver the whiskey. The statement was not, however, considered sufficient to convict. The two defendants were, it is claimed, spirited away from Salisbury after having worked up the cases for retailing. They claim that two Salisburyans followed them to Columbia, spent some time with them getting them drunk, after which they signed a statement guaranteeing the retailers to deliver the whiskey. The statement was not, however, considered sufficient to convict. The two defendants were, it is claimed, spirited away from Salisbury after having worked up the cases for retailing. They claim that two Salisburyans followed them to Columbia, spent some time with them getting them drunk, after which they signed a statement guaranteeing the retailers to deliver the whiskey. The statement was not, however, considered sufficient to convict. The two defendants were, it is claimed, spirited away from Salisbury after having worked up the cases for retailing. They claim that two Salisburyans followed them to Columbia, spent some time with them getting them drunk, after which they signed a statement guaranteeing the retailers to deliver the whiskey. The statement was not, however, considered sufficient to convict. The two defendants were, it is claimed, spirited away from Salisbury after having worked up the cases for retailing. They claim that two Salisburyans followed them to Columbia, spent some time with them getting them drunk, after which they signed a statement guaranteeing the retailers to deliver the whiskey. The statement was not, however, considered sufficient to convict. The two defendants were, it is claimed, spirited away from Salisbury after having worked up the cases for retailing. They claim that two Salisburyans followed them to Columbia, spent some time with them getting them drunk, after which they signed a statement